MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

The 47th Annual Meeting of Shareholders is fast approaching and this year our theme is Ataqan – Unangaλ for One. Throughout the Annual Meeting, we'll be celebrating and highlighting the benefits and opportunities we deliver to the Aleut People, our shareholders and descendants. From growing the Corporation's business portfolio to providing dividends, scholarships and community support, all our programs and partnerships work as One.

This year's Aleut Villages Conference will be held on October 10 and 11; Culture Night is on October 11, and the Annual Meeting and Banquet are on October 12 all at the Egan Center. The Exhibit Hall will be filled with information from our subsidiaries: Alaska Instrument Company, Aleut Enterprise, Aleut Management Services, Aleut PM Holding Company, Aleut Real Estate, ARS International, C&H Testing, and our newest subsidiary Strata-G Solutions.

The Aleut Corporation acquired Strata-G Solutions on September 1, which is in line with our Board's financial goal to grow TAC's revenue to $350M and to increase sustainable net income to $25M (less 7i) by 2022. With the acquisition of Strata-G we diversify our holdings by adding a proven company whose business is to deliver high quality engineering product solutions and technical solutions to global defense and commercial customers. Please stop by their exhibit to learn more about this company at the Annual Meeting.

In addition to our subsidiaries, you will also find other regional organizations, nonprofits, and educational groups at the Exhibit Hall of the Annual Meeting including:

BOARD CHAIR REPORT

Aang Shareholders,

As you may recall, two years ago the board set a goal to grow TAC's revenue by fiscal year 2022 through organic and investment growth. At the time, the Board recognized that this goal could not be achieved solely through organic growth and an acquisition of some sort was on the horizon to meet this goal. We are so pleased to report that this goal is advancing with our recent acquisition approval.

Your board is very pleased to announce the approval of purchase of Strata-G Solutions, Inc. This innovative organization focuses on solutions to unique challenges in design engineering and includes future work for the Department of Defense and other federal and commercial customers. Your management team and Board of Directors worked very closely to bring this purchase to fruition and we are excited for the future potential of your corporation with this addition. If you are attending this year's Annual Meeting, please visit the Strata-G booth to meet members of their team and learn about our newest subsidiary. More to come on this important investment in future newsletters.

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders is upon us and we hope to see you in October. Your proxies have been mailed and we ask that you take the time to vote in this year's election. The theme this year is Ataqan, meaning one; your board continues to operate as one as we grow and further The Aleut Corporation's mission to maximize dividends and opportunities for our shareholders.

On behalf of the board of directors,

Sharon Guenther Lind

THE ALEUT FOUNDATION UPDATE, SEPT 2019

By: Cynthia Lind, Executive Director

Aang! I hope everyone had a great summer. Fall is now upon us and we are focusing on the upcoming school year as well as the Aleut Village Conference, TAC Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and AFN. The 5th Annual Aleut Picnic was held June 22nd and we were thrilled that over 500 people showed up – the most we've ever had!!! We were thankful we had enough food and want to thank everyone who brought something to share. Thank you again to SnoFlo for providing us with shaved snowlice and poke bowls. The dessert bake-off did not disappoint. It was hard watching and waiting while the judges tasted desserts to make their very tough decision on whose dessert would win this year's competition. We appreciated Mr. Robert "Bob" Gould attending and speaking about his father Peter Gordon Gould, an Unangax from the village of Unga, who founded Alaska Pacific University. It was perfect because the students currently attending APU could learn about Mr. Gould. Our picnic was again held in conjunction with the closing ceremony of the APIA Urban Unangax Culture Camp and everyone was treated to Aleut dances by the youth that attended the Culture Camp. A big thank you to TAC for allowing us the use of their lands and to all the volunteers who helped to make this picnic a success!

SUPPORTING OUR CULTURE AND PEOPLE

The Aleut Foundation sponsored 50 people to attend culture camps this summer with 16 individuals attending the APIA Urban Unangax Culture Camp, 10 attending the Qagan Tayagungin Sand Point Culture Camp, 6 attending the King Cove Culture Camp, 6 attending the King Cove Culture Camp, and 12 attending the combined Atka and Akutan Culture Camp.

TAF provided funding for the following other programs: the Anchorage and St. Paul Summer Language Intensive (SLI) Projects; the St. Paul Unangam Tunuu Download (UTD) Project; the Fort Ross Mini Culture Camp; and the PNAC Drum Making Class that took place during their annual picnic in mid-August.

TAC BOARD SPOTLIGHT: JENIFER NELSON

EDUCATION:

Bachelor's Degree in Communications; Minor in Public Relations

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Served in multiple positions on the TAC Board of Directors, including Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Chair of Budget & Finance Committee; sits on the Campfire Alaska and American Cancer Society Alaska boards. The common thread: doing everything I can to give back to my community.

YEARS ON THE BOARD: 11

WHY BEING ON THE BOARD IS IMPORTANT TO YOU:

I'm not an original enrollee of The Aleut Corporation; I inherited my shares from my mother, Cynthia Samuelson, when she passed away. Mom was a board member when I was growing up and I saw some of the things she was able to do in that position. When I joined the TAC Board, I had just moved back from the Lower 48 and was really wanting to serve my people. I felt like I had a skillset to bring to the table. At the time, there weren't many descendants of the original enrollees on the Board, and I felt like I was able to bring a new perspective.

I grew up in King Cove, and always had a desire to experience the world and see what was out there. I went to school out of state, and that made me reflect on the importance of being connected to who you are, where you're from, and your family. Watching my mother and grandmother lead and participate in the community instilled in me a passion for giving back, and for whatever reason, it felt like that piece was missing once I left Alaska. So I moved back, and in a way, I'm continuing in the footsteps of mom and grandma - while fulfilling my own goals and passion to give back and work hard for my people and community.

In my current role at GCI, I'm a part of the telecommunications industry, and that has provided me some really amazing opportunities to serve and represent my people. As a part of the telecommunications industry and representing our shareholders and people, I served on the Arctic Council's Telecommunications Task Forces for two chairmanships (U.S. and Finland). I was able to bring an indigenous perspective to discussions about international and regional telecommunications issues, and represent the region on a global stage.

Giving back has extended to my work in the nonprofit world as well. I lost my mom to breast cancer and was involved with the Cancer Society in small ways during that time. I eventually had the opportunity to serve in a larger way by joining the board, and the work that they do to support families and patients is incredibly important.

On the board, I've been working hard to keep TAC thriving as a business. I want us to remain on the right path for growth so our assets continue to serve our shareholders well into the future.

WHAT PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT BEING A SHAREHOLDER:

For me, being a shareholder is more than getting a dividend or the programs. When I got the shares from my mom, I was connected to the Corporation in a different way than I had thought of before. Becoming a shareholder gave me a sense of belonging and connection to the Corporation and my people in a new way. You're connected to something that is bigger than yourself.

If you haven't already, get involved! Get registered. Get on those mailing lists. Be informed. This is an amazing organization that is working for our people. There is a lot of history and once you start digging in and understanding and hearing about the cool things we're doing, you'll want to know more. You'll want to be connected. We're all one big family!
